These bylaws are official documents of the Local PTA and should be kept in a secure place; ("Official Copy" by Recording Secretary and "Duplicate Copy" by the President). When new officers are elected, these documents shall be given to their successors.

These bylaws are presented for the use of Parent Teacher Associations that are in membership with the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers. Articles marked with a double () star are mandatory and must be included as stated (No changes may be made) in the bylaws of all local parent-teacher associations.

PTA "Service Marks"

The Congress of Patents of the United States has granted to the National PTA registrations of two service marks, which may be used by it and by each of the State PTAs and Local PTAs as a means of identification on pamphlets, books, and other publications and printed materials issued by the associations. The service marks are:

PTA (Certificate of Registration No. 808987 issued May 24, 1966)

Parent-Teacher Association (Certificate of Registration No. 810576 issued June 28, 1966)

It is a condition of the use of these marks by the State PTA; and Local PTAs that they shall in all respects conform to the standards established in the Bylaws of the National PTA, State PTAs, and Local PTAs, in good standing may avail themselves of the privilege of using either or both of these identifying service marks.

Article I: Name

The name of this association is the Ocean City PTA of Ocean City, Cape May County, New Jersey. It is a Local PTA (hereafter referred to as PTA) organized under the authority of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers (New Jersey PTA), a branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (National PTA).

* Article II: Purposes

Section 1: The purposes of the PTA, in common with those of National PTA and New Jersey PTA, are:

- a. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, places of worship, and throughout the community;
- b. To raise the standards of home life;
- c. To advocate for laws that further the education, physical and mental health, welfare, and safety of children and youth;
- d. To promote the collaboration and engagement of families and educators in the education of children and youth;
- e. To engage the public in united efforts to secure the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social well-being of all children and youth; and
- f. To advocate for fiscal responsibility regarding public tax dollars in public education funding.

Section 2: The purposes of the PTA are promoted through an advocacy and educational program directed toward parents, teachers, and the general public, developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and governed and qualified by the basic policies set forth in Article III.

Section 3: The association is organized exclusively for the charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter referred to as "Internal Revenue Code").

* Article III: Basic Policies

The following are basic policies of the PTA in common with those of National PTA and New Jersey PTA:

- a. The association shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
- b. The association shall work with the schools and community to provide quality education for all children and youth, and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process establishing school policy, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.
- c. The association shall work to promote the health and welfare of children and youth, and shall seek to promote collaboration among parents, schools, and the community at large.
- d. No part of the net earnings of the association shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.
- e. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:
 - i. By an association exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code
 - ii. By an association, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- f. Upon the dissolution of this association, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the association, the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, or associations that have established their tax-exempt status under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and whose purposes are in accordance with those of National PTA.
- g. The association or members in their official capacities shall not, directly or indirectly, participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.

* Article IV: Relationship with National PTA and New Jersey PTA

Section 1: This PTA shall be organized and chartered under the authority of the New Jersey PTA in the area in which the Local PTA functions, in conformity with such rules and regulations, not in conflict with the National PTA Bylaws, as the New Jersey PTA may in its bylaws prescribe. The New Jersey PTA shall issue to this Local PTA an appropriate charter evidencing the due organization and good standing of the Local PTA.

- a. A Local PTA in good standing is one that: adheres to the purposes and basic policies of the PTA;
- b. Remits the national portion of the dues through the New Jersey PTA to reach the national office by dates designated by the National PTA;
- c. Has bylaws approved according to the procedures of New Jersey PTA; and
- d. Meets other criteria as may be prescribed by the New Jersey PTA.

Section 2: The articles of association of this PTA include (a) the bylaws of such association and (b) the certificate of incorporation or articles of incorporation of such association (in cases in which the association is a corporation) or the articles of association by whatever name.

Section 3. This PTA shall adopt such bylaws for the government of the association as may be approved by the New Jersey PTA. Such bylaws shall not be in conflict with the National PTA Bylaws or the Bylaws of the New Jersey PTA.

Section 4. This PTA shall include in its bylaws provisions corresponding to the New Jersey PTA Bylaws as are identified herein by a double star.

Section 5. The adoption of an amendment to any provision of the New Jersey PTA Bylaws identified by a double star shall serve automatically and without the requirement of further action by the PTA to amend its bylaws. This PTA shall promptly incorporate such amendments in its bylaws.

Section 6. Bylaws of this PTA shall include an article on amendments.

Section 7. Bylaws of this PTA shall include a provision establishing a quorum.

Section 8. Each officer or board member of this PTA shall be a member of this PTA.

Section 9. The bylaws of this PTA shall prohibit at all general membership meetings voting by proxy, absentee ballot, telephone, fax, or e-mail. A local PTA may create procedures in their standing rules for other meeting formats that do not include voting. Those members attending by other meeting formats will not count towards the quorum.

Section 10. A PTA member shall not serve as a voting member of this PTA's board of directors while serving as a paid employee of or under contract to this PTA.

Section 11. Only members of this PTA who have paid dues for the current membership year may participate in the business of this PTA.

Section 12. This PTA shall collect dues from its members and shall remit a portion of such dues to the New Jersey PTA as provided in Article V hereof.

Section 13. The members of the nominating committee for officers of this PTA shall be elected by the general membership.

Section 14. This PTA shall keep such permanent books of account and records as shall be sufficient to establish the items of gross income, receipts, and disbursements of the association, including, specifically, the number of its members, the dues collected from its members, and the amounts of dues remitted to the New Jersey PTA. Such books of account and records shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by an authorized representative of the New Jersey PTA or, where directed by the committee on state and national relationships, by a duly authorized representative of the National PTA.

Section 15. The charter of this PTA shall be subject to withdrawal and the status of such association as a Local PTA shall be subject to termination, in the manner and under the circumstances provided the bylaws of the New Jersey PTA.

* Article V: Members and Dues

Section 1. Every individual who is a member of the PTA is, by virtue of that fact, a member of the National PTA and of the New Jersey PTA by which this Local PTA is chartered, and is entitled to all the benefits of such membership.

Section 2. Membership in PTA shall be open, without discrimination, to anyone who believes in and supports the mission and purposes of National PTA.

Section 3. This PTA shall conduct an annual enrollment of members but may admit individuals to membership at any time.

Section 4. Each member of this PTA shall pay such annual dues to said association as may be prescribed by the association. The amount of such dues shall include the portion payable to the New Jersey PTA – the "state portion" – and the portion payable to the National PTA – the "national portion."

Section 5. The state portion of each member's dues shall be determined by the New Jersey PTA. The national portion of each member's dues shall be two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per annum.

Section 6. The New Jersey PTA portion of each member's dues shall be one dollar and seventy-five cents ($1.75) per annum.

Section 7. Each member of this PTA shall pay annual dues of $10.00 to said dues association. The amount of such annual dues shall include the portion payable to the New Jersey PTA and the portion payable to the National PTA. New Jersey PTA and National PTA do not recognize family memberships. One Vote – One Card – One Member.

Section 8. The state and national portions of the dues paid by each member of this PTA shall be set aside by the Local PTA and remitted to the New Jersey PTA through such channels and at such times as the New Jersey PTA bylaws may provide. New Jersey PTA shall pay to the National PTA the amount of the national portion of dues paid by all members of Local PTAs in its area.

Section 9. The Treasurer of each Local PTA shall send the portion of National and State dues of its individual members to the New Jersey PTA office by the 15th of each month starting October 15th. Payment of National and State membership dues must be made to be in good standing.

Section 10. Members in good standing in a Local PTA are those who abide by their current bylaws and who have paid current dues.

Section 11. The privilege of holding office, voting in an election and being an official voting delegate to convention shall be limited to members who have been members in good standing at least 15 days.

Section 12. Members who are under the age of 18 years are prohibited under New Jersey law from signing contracts that bind the members of the PTA.

Section 13. The PTA membership year shall be from October 1st through September 30th. Reactivated PTAs, having sent dues and a copy of their proposed bylaws to the New Jersey PTA office, shall be recognized in membership for the current year.

Section 14. Membership shall be divided into three classes: active, life, and state.

- a. Active members shall be those who are members of a Local PTA and who have paid their current per capita dues to the New Jersey PTA and the National PTA. Only active members shall hold office and serve on standing committees;
- b. Life members shall be those upon whom this honor has been conferred in recognition of service in local, county, or New Jersey PTA work or upon interested educators and personnel who have distinguished themselves in service to children and youth. Life Members may become active members of a Local PTA upon the payment of current dues at the local level; and
- c. State members shall be those who are members of the Garden State PTA and who have paid their current per capita dues of ten dollars ($10.00) to the New Jersey PTA and National PTA. The national portion of each member's dues shall be two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per annum. The state portion of each member's dues shall be seven dollars and seventy-five cents ($7.75) per annum. State members shall be entitled to attend the annual state convention as an accredited delegate upon payment of the registration fee.

Section 15. All Local PTAs that have paid state and national dues shall be eligible for membership in a council. Councils shall not legislate for locals.

Article VI: Officers

Section 1. The officers of this Local PTA shall be: President, Vice President - IS, Vice President - PS, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section 2. Elections: Officer positions up for election shall be elected by a majority at a General Membership meeting by written ballot. When there is but one candidate for an office, the ballot for that office may be dispensed with on motion and election held by voice vote. Elections shall be normally held in the month of May, unless postponed on motion by a majority vote at a General Membership meeting.

Section 3. Terms: The terms of office shall be staggered and be for two years or until a successor is elected. Elections for the offices of President, Vice President - PS, and Recording Secretary being held in odd numbered years and elections for the offices of Vice-President - IS, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer being held in even numbered years. Outgoing officers shall work with their successors for a period of time that is necessary to ensure an orderly transition.

*Section 4. The following provisions shall govern the qualifications and eligibility of individuals to be officers of the PTA:

- a. Each officer shall be a member of this Local PTA;
- b. No officers may be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in the same office;
- c. A person who has served more than one-half of a term shall be deemed to have served a full term, in such office;
- d. Each officer shall be at least 18 years of age as of the date of the election.
- e. No person shall hold more than one office at a time.

*Section 5. Officers shall assume their official duties annually on July 1st. All outgoing officers shall deliver to their successors all official material not later than ten (10) days following the conclusion of their term or in case of resignation.

Section 6. Vacancies: In the event of resignation or death of President, the Vice President - IS shall assume the duties on an acting basis of said office until such time as a replacement can be nominated and elected at the first general membership meeting that can be held in due course for the balance of the unexpired term. In the event of other vacancy, the President shall appoint an acting officer until such time as a replacement can be nominated and elected at the first general membership meeting that can be held in due course for the unexpired term. Election procedures shall be in line with those in Section 2 of this Article and at least five (5) days notice of any such election shall be made to the general membership.

Section 7. Honorary Office: The title of Honorary President or Honorary Vice President may be conferred by the association (or Board of Directors). It is a complimentary position unless these bylaws provide otherwise.

Note: This title is conferred for life but may be rescinded by the local. An honorary office is not an elective office and the title in no way conflicts with members holding a real office or being assigned a duty.

*Section 8. Nominations

- a. There shall be a Nominating Committee composed of at least 3 members (but must be an odd number) who shall be elected by this PTA at a regular general membership meeting at least two months prior to the election of officers, as outlined in Article VI, Section 2;
- b. One (1) alternate to the nominating committee shall be elected in the same manner;
- c. The first member elected shall call the committee together and the committee shall elect its own chairman;
- d. The Nominating Committee shall select one (1) eligible person for each office. The Nominating Committee shall report its slate of nominees immediately to the president, as a courtesy. Thirty days prior to the general membership meeting at which elections are to be held (as provided in Article VI, Section 2 of these bylaws) the
- e. members shall be informed of the report of the Nominating Committee.
- f. Only persons who have signified their consent in writing shall be eligible to be nominated to such an office, either by committee or from the floor;
- g. Nominations from the floor shall be given 20 days notice before the general membership meeting at which elections are to be held (as provided in Article VI, Section 2 of these bylaws), of their intent to run. Notification must be in writing. Notification must be in writing to the Local PTA President, Recording Secretary and Nominating Committee Chairman.

Note: Nominating committee members can be considered for office, they should not be penalized by serving on the nominating committee.

Article VII: Duties of Officers

Section 1. The President shall preside at all General Membership meetings of the Local PTA, meetings all of the Executive Committee, and meetings of the Board of Directors; shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed in these bylaws or assigned to him/her by the General Membership, by the Executive Committee, or the Board of Directors; shall be the primary liaison with the School District, the Board of Education, and all outside organizations; shall coordinate the work of the officers and non-school specific committee chairpersons in order that the purposes of the Local PTA may be promoted; shall act as back up to the Vice Presidents; and shall have the power to appoint replacement officers, in accordance with Article VI Section 6, and all committee chairpersons, when vacancies occur.

In an emergency, or the unavailability of the president or treasurer, the recording secretary may sign in place of one of the other signatories;
- d. keep the record of the National and State portions of the membership dues separate from the record of the general funds of the local association. The treasurer shall send the annual National and State dues of each individual member of this Local PTA to the State Branch on or before the dates listed in Article V, Section 9;
- e. present a financial statement of accounts at every meeting of the association and at other times when requested by the Board of Directors, and shall make a full report at the annual meeting;
- f. The treasurer's accounts shall be reviewed annually or upon change of officers, by an internal auditing committee of not less than three (3) members, who satisfied that the treasurer's annual report is correct, shall sign a statement to the facts at the end of the report; and
- g. the internal auditing committee shall be appointed by the president with approval of the Board of Directors and shall report at the annual meeting.

Section 6. Additional Treasurer Duties:

- a. The Treasurer shall, in conjunction with the President, prepare a budget to be presented for approval by the Board of Directors;
- b. The treasurer shall maintain the website, as appropriate;

- c. The Treasurer shall be, as assigned by the President, the General Membership, the Executive Committee, or the Board of Directors, responsible for maintaining insurance policies; filing of any annual tax or other financial related forms, such as, but not limited to, gaming permits; and act as representative for other items, such as, but not limited to, storage facilities, as necessary.

*Section 7. Each officer or Board Member shall be a member of this Local PTA. Each officer shall have completed annual leadership training provided by or approved by New Jersey PTA.

Section 8. Executive Committee

- a. Members: The Officers of the Local PTA shall comprise voting members of the Executive Committee. A majority of those serving shall constitute a quorum.
- b. Duties: On behalf of the Local PTA, the Executive Committee is responsible for:
 - creating committees, as authorized in Article X of these bylaws;
 - setting meeting agendas;
 - approving expenditures to the extent of previously approved budget limits;
 - the long term planning, development of procedures and the proposition of policy;
 - meeting to address and decide on emergency or urgent issues to the extent that it is impractical to have a special Board of Directors meeting and/or General Membership meeting. Any decisions arising from such, shall be reported, and supported by minutes, at the next scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors or the General Membership.

Article VIII: Board of Directors

Section 1. Members:

- a. Each board member shall be a member of this Local PTA;
- b. The Board of Directors shall consist of the officers and the committee chairpersons of the Local PTA;
- c. A majority of the officers and at least 4 committee chairpersons shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2. Duties: The Board of Directors shall be responsible:

- a. for approving the annual budget;
- b. for approving any adjustments to the annual budget;
- c. for approving the annual audit;
- d. for approving Local PTA policies;
- e. for approving or conducting any audits or investigations on any Local PTA matter;
- f. for addressing, discussing and/or deciding on any urgent issue where it is not practical for a General Membership meeting. Such actions shall be reported and supported by minutes at the next General Membership meeting.

Section 3. Meetings: The Board of Directors shall meet at least once per year, generally at the beginning of the school year, in order to at least approve the annual budget and the annual audit.

Section 4. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or by a majority of the members of the Board, five (5) days notice having been given. The purpose of the meeting shall be stated in the call.

Article IX: General Membership Meetings

Section 1. Only members who are in good standing as defined in Article V shall be eligible to participate in the business of this Local PTA.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the annual scheduling of at least three regular meetings to occur during the school year. Such schedule shall be provided to the General Membership at least 30 days in advance of the first scheduled meeting.

Section 3. Such regular monthly meeting may be canceled and/or rescheduled by a vote of the Executive Committee, however, provided that at least three meetings are held during the school year.

Section 4. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors, five (5) days notice having been given. The purpose of the meetings will be stated in the call.

Section 5. A minimum of 10 members shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6. In the event of not reaching a quorum, such meeting shall be held as an Executive Committee meeting, provided that a quorum can be reached for such a meeting, as stated in Article VII Section 7a, and provided the previous General Membership meeting was held with a quorum present.

Article X: Standing, Activities and Ad-Hoc Committees

Section 1. Only members of this Local PTA shall be eligible to serve as chairmen or members of committees.
